

Quotes about Biblical Stewardship

“The earth will not continue to offer its harvest, except with faithful stewardship. We cannot say we love the land and then take steps to destroy it for use by future generations.”

— Pope John Paul II

“The Christian Steward receives God’s gifts gratefully, tends them responsibly, shares them justly and returns them with increase to the Lord.

— United States Conference of Bishops in Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response

“A leader must be a good listener. He must be willing to take counsel. He must show a genuine concern and love for those under his stewardship.”

— James Faust

“Hoarding is both unnecessary and an affront to God, who is perfectly capable of providing abundantly for those who trust in him.”

— Richard B. Hays, The Conversion of the Imagination: Paul as Interpreter of Israel's Scripture

There is always a storm. There is always rain. Some experience it. Some live through it. And others are made from it.”

— Shannon L. Alder

When someone loves you so much that He dies for you, you can trust that any rewards He promises are going to be good.”

— David Servant, Forever Rich

“Do all the good you can. By all the means you can. In all the ways you can. In all the places you can. At all the times you can. To all the people you can. As long as ever you can.”

— John Wesley

Sixteen of the thirty-eight parables of Jesus deal with money. One out of ten verses in the New Testament deals with that subject. Scripture offers about five hundred verses on prayer, fewer than five hundred on faith, and over two thousand on money. The believer's attitude toward money and possessions is determinative.”

— John F. MacArthur Jr.

Christian Stewardship is managing God’s Blessings, God’s Way for God’s Glory

— Chris Brown, True Stewardship.com

“..tithing isn't something I do to clear my conscience so I can do whatever I want with the 90 percent--it also belongs to God! I must seek his direction and permission for whatever I do with the full amount. I may discover that God has different ideas than I do.”

— Randy Alcorn, Money, Possessions and Eternity

“Here's a scary thought: What if God called you to give beyond your comfort level? Would you be afraid? Would you try to explain it away or dismiss it as impractical? And in the process, would you miss out on a harvest opportunity for which God had explicitly prospered you in the first place?”

— Andy Stanley, Fields Of Gold

“A checkbook is a theological documents; it will tell you who and what you worship.”

— Billy Graham
